

the big awkward: part two

Real Conversations and Straight Answers about Race, Color, and Equity

A VIRTUAL PANEL DISCUSSION

Thursday, September 24, 2020 | 5:00pm to 6:00pm EST | Fee: $20.00

WE'RE BACK!

Open your mind, listen and learn during part 2 in our series to have better conversations and get past feeling awkward!

GOOGLE SAYS SEARCHES FOR THE TERMS "AM I A RACIST" HAVE SPIKED TO AN ALL-TIME HIGH!

Instead of asking "Am I a racist?" to yourself, maybe the question is "What am I doing to stop racism I see in the world?"

During Part Two in our continuing series, we'll discuss the following:

- Define: What is a racist?
- Is it within our control?
- How can you tell if you are a racist?
- How to not be a racist!

Please join Casey, Taryn, and Andrew for another candid conversation, designed to help demystify awkward issues that are emotionally charged. Open your mind, listen to what we have to share, and take away what you need to help YOU have more enriching conversations on your own.

SPEAKERS

Casey Carpenter, CEO | Speak & Own It Communications

Taryn Abrahams, MFT, SHRM-CP, Founder/CEO | Empower Behavioral Services, LLC.

Andrew Botwin | Strategy People Culture, LLC

PRESENTED BY

Taryn Abrahams

Casey Carpenter

Andrew Botwin

Register
NOW